COUNTY PLATFORM.

Resolved That this Convention endorse the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention held at Reno on the 14th day of September, 1882.

Resolved, That the Republicans of Washoe County heartily endorse the nominees of the Republican State Convention, from Governor to State Printer, as honest, true and capable men.

Resolved, That the salary law of this State is, in our opinion, just and equitable, and a great benefit to the taxpayers of this county, and that it would be inexpedient to make any change therein.

Resolved, That the common schools of our county demand the fostering care of every good citizen. That their management should be placed in the hands of our best men, and that the different precincts of the county select such men for school officers.

Resolved, That the Republican party of Washoe county views with concern a bankrupt treasury, the general depreciation of values throughout the State and the uncertainty of the near future—realizing the necessity for immediate and practical legislation, and the direction of stern retribution and a wise administration of justice in the affairs of county and state, and that our candidates for legislative and county offices be solemnly pledged to use their best endeavors to secure the needed legislation and desired economy in public affairs.

Resolved, That we recommend and heartily endorse the nomination of the Hon C C Pown for Member of Congress, and U S Preble for Surveyor General.

Resolved, That we recall with pride the efforts of C. C. Pown in the Legislature of our State, and his acting as Senator from this county.

Resolved, That we have known him from boyhood to manhood in Reno, and that we have ever found him temperate, moral, industrious and honest.

Resolved, That we feel confident that our candidate for Surveyor General is deserving the confidence and support of the people. That he is competent to fill the duties of the important office to which he aspires, and a gentle man whom we take pleasure in recommending to the voters of Nevada.

Office of the County Coroner where all official notices for that office should be left.

A FALSE RUMOR.

It will not be news to observing Republicans to learn that for the past ten days there has been secret whisperings here and there that a scheme is being concocted within their party to sacrifice certain candidates upon the county ticket in order to make the election of others doubly sure. We could not believe there were any such traitors in the ranks, and have made diligent search to ascertain whether or not the rumor had any foundation, and are fully convinced, and assure Republicans, that it has none. The whole story originated from Democratic sources, and is a shrewd maneuver on the part of the enemy to create distrust and consequent dissension in the Republican ranks. Do not be deceived into voting contrary to your convictions of right by any such silly bugbears. This is only one of many similar breaks you may expect to hear of before the election. Let no outside influence swerve you from duty. Keep your eye on the gun and march straight to the front.

AN INDEPENDENT.

The Rev. Henry Ward Beecher has severed his connections with church organizations and is now seeking to obtain Christian honors on an Independent ticket. By this arrangement he avoids paying assessments or newspapers to advocate his cause.

We desire to inform our Democratic friends that we have heard from Ohio, and we desire to state further that hereafter the individual who asks us that question more than sixteen times in the same day, dies; and the paper that prints it will be summarily dropped from the exchange list.

Cadet Whitaker, who is thought to have cut off his own ears, has turned Democrat, and is seeking the nomination for Congress in the Black District of South Carolina. More self-mutilation.

Those who have the privilege of reading Ingersoll's great speech in the Star Route trials, can not for a moment believe that the Government ever had a case, or the shadow of one.

It is a noticeable fact that the Democrats in this State are making a very weak canvass. This is not surprising, for with a weak cause and a still weaker ticket what could you expect?

Howard Carroll, of the New York Times, has been nominated for Congressman-at-Large by the Republicans, vice A. B. Hepburn, declined.

GARFIELD ON THE DEMOCRACY.

The Democratic party nowhere raises any great political questions; they only want to get in power.

I affirm, and I believe I do not misrepresent the great Democratic party, that in the last sixteen years they have not advanced one great national idea that is not to-day exploded and as dead as Julius Caesar.

Every triumph that the Republican party has achieved has been grumblingly and hesitatingly adopted by the Democratic party about five years after it was done. There is not an element of power, of strength, of manhood, or of decency in that party to-day that they did not borrow from us.

Over this vast horizon of interests, North and South, above all party prejudices and personal wrong-doing, above our battle hosts and our victorious cause, above all we hewed for and won, or you hoped for and lost, is the grand onward movement of the Republic to perpetuate its glory, to save liberty alive, to preserve exact and equal justice to all, to protect and foster all these priceless principles until they shall have crystallized into the form of enduring law and become inwrought into the life and habits of our people.

And until these great results are accomplished it is not safe to take one step backward. It is still more unsafe to trust interests of such meanness in the hands of an organization whose members have never comprehended their epoch, have never been in sympathy with its great movements, who have resisted every step of its progress, and whose principal function has been "to lie in cold abstraction" across the pathway of the nation.

Egypt.

A dispatch from Egypt states that a few days since one chief eunuch of the palace entered upon El Abdul, a political prisoner, and aroused him from sleep, spattered his face and inflicted other indignities upon him. The eunuch proceeded to Arabi Pasha's cell and abused him in a similar manner, but with greater violence. Several officers are accused of complicity in these outrages.

Preliminary inquiries thus far tend to support Arabi's assertion that outrages perpetrated during the rebellion were committed against his will.

Correspondents accompanying the British army in the Egyptian campaign will receive the decoration of an order.

When the rebel prisoners were delivered to the Egyptian authorities the English insisted that they should be allowed legal assistance. The Egyptians contend that this condition does not bind them to permit the engagement of foreign counsel. The question will be referred to the Foreign Office.

The indictments against the rebel chiefs contain three counts—first, instigating a massacre; second, directing the burning of Alexandria; third, abusing a flag of truce.

A friend of Arabi Pasha, Abdul Kerim Pasha El Kahar, will next March visit America to make preliminaries for the emigration of some of Arabi's followers to this country. This gentleman is perhaps the most highly educated gentleman in the East, having translated the New Testament into Arabic and written in French the best book that has ever appeared against polygamy.

A CRANK IN NEW YORK.

Tuesday afternoon, on Fourteenth street, New York City, a crazy Frenchman suddenly appeared armed with a pair of carpenter's compasses, and commenced stabbing right and left, and before he could be stopped had wounded half-dozen or more ladies, some of them mortally. When arrested he told the officer that he had stabbed the women because some man had threatened his life. The prisoner, with his father, wandered for years through the city bearing painted signs demanding justice from California authorities for some wrong. They accepted charity, but only enough to feed and lodge them.

The father died in February of last year, but the son kept up the pilgrimage until Tuesday, when he set out upon the slaughter of women.

SPICY CORRESPONDENCE.

Amos F. Larned, one of the 306 Stalwarts, disapproving of Beecher's sermon, advising the Republicans to bolt Folger's nomination, wrote that divine:

DEAR BEECHER: You made an ass of yourself yesterday.

AMOS F. LARNED.

Beecher forthwith replied to this candid statement in no less direct words:

DEAR SIR: The Lord saved you the trouble of making an ass of yourself by making you an ass at the beginning, and His work stands sure.

HENRY WARD BEECHER.

The correspondence dropped here.

The dead-lock in the Senatorial contest in Oregon remains the same. The friends of all the candidates remain firm. Ballot after ballot is taken with no indication of a break from any quarter. The chances are that a dark horse will yet win the prize.

TUFLY HEARD FROM.

The Elko Independent says Uncle George Tufty, Republican candidate for State Treasurer, came up last evening for the purpose of interviewing his friends politically and otherwise. He took rooms at the Depot Hotel, and shortly after he had retired, the guests were startled by a singular and unusual rumbling sound, supposed by some to be the forerunner of an earthquake, but investigation revealed the fact that Uncle George was asleep and—snoring.

IMPORTANT RULING.

The General Land Office at Washington has made the following ruling, important to Nevada people: "Lands which produce wild grass, but not in sufficient quantity to pay for cutting as hay, are desert lands, and may be entered as such; but when the character of the land is such that a crop of hay may be produced without irrigation, such land is not subject to desert entry."

We see by the Bellevue Chronicle that the Grand Jury of that town has indicted George Pearson of that town, of murder in the first degree, for killing that notorious snake-thief robber and murderer, known all over this coast by the very suggestive title of "Johnny behind the rocks." Instead of being indicted for killing a creature of that kind, his slayer ought to have been awarded a medal.

A farmer named Davidson, near Deckerville, Mich., shot and killed his wife during a quarrel about some property. He then shot one son, aged 21 years, who has since died, and fatally injured another son, and fled

TOWN AND COUNTY.

BREVITIES

Mrs. Fellnagle, of Wadsworth, is in Reno visiting friends.

The Fair is over, the storm is over, the clerk is no longer half-asleep over, and the weather is fair.

A large and choice assortment of bird cages just received and for sale by Osburn & Shoemaker.

Joe Wasson, the well known newspaper man and mining expert, is in San Francisco in very poor health.

The Reno Water Co have filled their reservoir during the past week, and a full head is now on in all the hydrants.

Jack O'Brien drove a band of three thousand sheep through town this morning, en route to the foot-hills south of the river.

The boys are beginning to congregate in groups of twos and threes which indicate the fuel is being stirred up under the political cauldron.

The gas on the iron bridge is now lighted every night, to the great convenience of those who reside on the south side of the river.

Dayton will have a season of activity during the time the wood drive is being fended. Dayton and Empire are the principal "seayorts" of Nevada.

I. D. Cross, whom the JOURNAL mentioned a few days ago as recuperating from his long sickness, is again reported worse by the Wood River papers.

W. F. Berry, of the firm of Manning & Berry, leaves to-day for business trip through the northern country, and expects to be gone a week or two.

The changeable weather the past two weeks has had the effect to stuff nearly everybody full of cold. Coughing and sneezing is the order of the day now.

Powning and his party of stumpers are advertised to arrive in Eureka Sunday night, and the Republicans of that city are making preparations to give the "peanut boy" as they term Mr. Powning, a grand reception.

The recent Grand Jury in Storey county—the one that kicked up such a rumpus in the Democratic camp—received from the County Treasury $1,426 80 for their services. The experts employed received $368.

The Young Men's Republican Club is not dead, but has only been taking a rest. A ratification meeting will be held under the auspices of the Club early the coming week. A committee has been appointed to make arrangements for speakers.

A move is to be made by the property owners on Center street, north, to have a plank foot-walk constructed from the Plaza, north, along the west side of the street to 7th street. The work can be done at small expense and would be a great convenience to dwellers in that portion of town—especially in winter.

Joe Williams and James McManus were arraigned in the District Court yesterday to answer an indictment for burglary. Both plead guilty to the charge, and waiving time allowed by law in such cases, Judge King sentenced Williams to two years and McManus to three years in the State Prison. They were taken to Carson yesterday.

The Enterprise says the Democrats have not yet succeeded in getting a man to take the vacant place of candidate for State Treasurer on their ticket. The empty honor has been proffered to a member of prominent Democrats—including Schooling and Huffaker, of Washoe county; Klein, of Ormsby; Gray, of Storey, and Lothrop, of Lyon—but they have one and all declined.

District Court.

Court opened yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

Joe Williams was arraigned, pleaded guilty to burglary, waived time of sentence and was sentenced to two years in the State Prison.

James McManus did likewise and was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary.

Court adjourned till this morning at 12 a.m.

Information Wanted.

Mortimer Jesurun is requested to communicate with his mother at once. Any one knowing of his whereabouts or can give any information that will secure his address, will be liberally rewarded and greatly relieve an anxious mother. Address, L. JESURUN, 21, West 36th street, New York City.

State Fair Matters.

Upon casting a balance sheet yesterday the Trustees of the State Fair found they were short of funds to pay for help employed Fair week, and to make the account balance put up the deficiency themselves. The Committee are at work on the premium list, which will be published as soon as completed.

MYSTERIOUS DEATH.

Joe Clow Found Dead in His Room
—Possible Case of Suicide.

Last evening, about seven o'clock Johnny Wulf, the clerk of the Washoe lodging house and saloon, on Commercial Row, went up stairs to awake Joe Clow, who had been in bed all day. He rapped at the door without eliciting an answer, and finding it locked, procured a ladder and looked over the transom. By aid of a candle light he discovered Clow lying face downward in the bed, and calling to his aid Jackson Alexander, he climbed over the transom and found, on examination, that Clow was dead. The Coroner was immediately notified and the body was removed to Sanders' undertaking rooms, and his brother sent for. Joseph Clow is a brother of Barney Clow, a well-known rancher living about three miles from Reno. He has been for some time employed on Bidleman's ranch, but for ten or twelve days past has been staying in town taking in the Fair, apparently. Parties well acquainted with him stated last evening that they had seen him about the streets yesterday morning—though the condition of the remains was such as to suggest his having been dead twenty or thirty hours. After the body had been removed, Mr. Wulf searched the room carefully and found a half emptied bottle of strichnine near the bed of the deceased. While the presence of the poison is curious, still the condition of the body does not show the traces of strichnine poisoning. No valuables except a silver watch were found on the body and all the facts will be examined into thoroughly to-day by the Coroner's Jury.

A Curious Chinese Case.

On December 20th, 1881, a chinchilla coat valued at $20 was taken from a dummy in front of Abrams & Bros' White House store. Nothing was ever seen of the coat thereafter until last week, when a Chinaman named Chin Jim entered the White House to buy some article. The appearance of the coat on Jim's back struck Mr. Abrams as identical with that of the one missing since last December, and on closer examination he had Ah Jim arrested. He was tried yesterday afternoon before Justice Young, found guilty and ordered to appear for sentence this morning at 10 o'clock. The Chinaman is the proprietor of the vegetable ranch in front of the Insane Asylum. He claims to have bought the coat from another man, though it is stated that he contradicted himself three different times in relation to the party from whom he purchased the coat. Still Jim made quite a plausible plea by saying that if he had stolen the coat from Abrams' store, he surely would never have gone into their place wearing the stolen property on his back. His desired sentence to be deferred till to-day, as Ah Jack will return from Carson and he expects Jack to aid him with counsel.

The Latest Dodge.

A trio of sharpers from some place, no one knows where, started in to "work" Reno yesterday by means of a new dodge, but landed in the "cooler" before the job was quite finished. They managed to get away with a few dollars from several business men before their game was detected. The way they work is this: The three walk into a business house and ask for two or four bits' worth of goods; when served, they throw out a $20 piece and ask that two-thirds of the change be returned in gold. When counted out, the supposed purchaser starts in as if to count it himself, when his pal suddenly discovers that he has a half-dollar in his clothes and throws it out, telling the unsuspecting merchant that he need not trouble himself about making change, and to return the $20, which is done, and the change raked back into the drawer, less the five or ten-dollar piece the swindler has purloined from the pile. The three players of the game are named W. S. Dunford, Oliver Raymond and Chas. Hoskins. They had a preliminary examination before Justice Young last evening and were held in bonds at $500 each.

The Tall End of the Fair.

The great influx of visitors to Reno during the State Fair has nearly all regressed to their homes and as a general rule only the most worthless class are continuing to stop here, most likely from inability to depart. As a general rule this class invariably shows its presence here within a few days after the cessation of the Fair. And this year proved no exception. Last Wednesday night J. C. Smith, a rancher living some few miles from town, having occasion to visit a local lodge, drove in and hitched his team in front of the Granger store, corner of Virginia and second streets. When he returned to drive home, he found his buggy minus a valuable Kersey robe, worth considerable money. Some sneak thief had absconded with it and sold it to some fence in town. Officers are investigating the matter and are on a pretty clear trail.

THE HARRIS MINE.

A Promising Bit of Property.

In relation to the newly discovered mine in Washoe Valley, the Enterprise has the following: "Ed. Harris, of Gold Hill, owns a good mine in Washoe county, about two miles directly east of Washoe City. It is known as the Harris mine, and has already yielded a considerable amount of rich ore. The location is on the top of a hill, which is a perfect network of small veins of gold-bearing quartz. The gold is coarse and completely covers and fills many specimens of the rock. Thus far all the work done has been at and near the surface. The greatest depth anywhere attained is but about fifty feet."

Mr. Harris has found on the surface some very rich specimens. The top and sides of the hill are covered with boulders of quartz, and Mr. Harris now intends gathering ore on the surface, he having just discovered that on being broken open many of them that outwardly appear to be pure white quartz are within filled with wire gold. Could he obtain water with which to sluice, the whole surface of the hill would pay richly if worked as a placer mine.

The other day he picked up on the surface a piece of rock weighing some three ounces, which yielded an ounce of gold. A good deal of the rock taken out of the small feeders is pounded in hand mortars. Mr. Harris has men at work on his ground, and expects sooner or later to find the mother vein. The quartz shows a good deal of iron, and has a red and rusty appearance. In the same region, lying on the surface of the ground, are found thin flakes or scales of black sulphure of silver, assaying from $1,000 to $2,000, and without a trace of gold.

A good feature of the Harris mine is that it is paying right along, and is liable almost any day to develop into a big thing. The same ground has been run over by prospectors for twenty years, and the only mark of a pick on the whole hill was one little hole dug by some man who was very tired when he began work."

The Night-Key Boys.

It often happens that the keys will slip from the pockets of night-bound Renoites, no matter how carefully they may keep their hand on the key, and then what a racket starts up between the unfortunate loser and the irate landlady, waked up at half-past three in the morning. Here is a silly suggestion that can be observed when keys are thus accidentally missing. Keep a sharp lookout for the old lady and when she goes out marketing or visiting, take a new blank key, which you have previously bought, and smoke it well over the flame of a candle. Then introduce it carefully in the key-hole and press it firmly against the opposing wards of the lock, withdraw it, and the indentations in the smoked part of the key will show you exactly where to file. Then when the irate landlady returns, you can show her the new made key and blandly inform her how you had just found it underneath your bureau. Her wrath of the morning or two previous will instantly evaporate and you will be an honored guest thereafter, with the finest of steaks, choicest of roasts, etc., etc. The idea is certainly one every progressive young man in Reno should follow up.

Republicans in Paradise.

A dispatch from Winnemucca, dated Oct. 11th, says: On Monday evening Judge Leonard, Senator Powning, Controller Hallock and Colonel Bishop addressed one of the largest political meetings ever held in Paradise Valley, and every speaker made a most excellent impression. Mr. Bishop was in an unusually happy spirit and surpassed himself. The same gentlemen had a good reception at Winnemucca last night. Republicans were well pleased with their remarks. The split in the Democratic ranks here leads prominent Republicans to believe that the Democratic majority in this county will not exceed forty, and may not reach that figure. The Republican county ticket is almost certain to be elected.

A Hint to Housekeepers.

Many persons who are in the habit of freshening mackerel or salt fish never dream that there is a right and a wrong way to do it. Any person who has seen the process of evaporation going on at the salt works knows that the salt falls to the bottom. Just so it is in the pan where your mackerel or salt fish lie soaking; and, as it lies with the skin down, the salt will fall to the skin and there remain; when, if placed with the flesh side down, the salt falls to the bottom of the pan, and the fish comes out freshened. In the other case it is nearly as salt as when put in.

E. Meyer has just received a choice lot of fine fresh Havana cigars, including all the most popular brands. The best domestic cigars to be found in the State are always kept on hand; also all the favorite brands of smoking and chewing tobacco and cigarettes. Playing cards and all manner of novelties, fancy cutlery, etc., at the lowest rates.

Another Crank.

On last evening's west bound train B. C. Thomas, of Austin, Lander county, arrived, bringing in charge an insane patient named Henry Mollard. The unfortunate is a comparatively young man, resident of Austin for scarcely two weeks. His insanity is of a mild type, as he imagines beholding visions of dead relatives and spiritual beings. After the arrival of the train he was lodged at the Palace Hotel. When Dr. Dawson was ready to take him to the Asylum he was strapped as a preliminary precaution and driven to his future home.

A Fitting Place.

The place in Buffalo Canyon, Roop county, selected by Chief Winnemucca in which to end his earthly career is the identical spot where the old warrior was born 82 years ago, according to Pinto reckoning. It is a large cleft in a huge reef of rock which stands out in bold relief near the base of the canyon. A beautiful mountain stream flows close by, and the wild grandeur of the surroundings makes it a fitting place for a dying savage.
